Usage and collection of data

Vipex Consolidators will gather data from their customers when they obtain a login ID. This data will not be sold or distributed in any way shape or form.

Transfer Information to Vipex Consolidators

When a customer request quotes they are required to fill out a form which gives us information about their companies and themselves. We will keep this data confidential at all times. The only way we will use this information is to contact them directly. Be conscious that when you send data via the internet it is never secure. It could be accessed by third parties such as hackers. Vipex Consolidators is not responsible or liable for the security of your data while in transit via the Internet to us. Please use other ways of communication such as fax or regular post office mail if you believe this is necessary for security reasons.

Handling of data

Vipex Consolidators uses cookies to identify users and to map usage patterns. Cookies are pieces of information that are stored by a user's browser on his or her computer's hard drive.

We could use hyperlink coding to add an identification number to the URL in a browser's address bar. This is a random number assigned to a user on each visit to the site. The number only tracks the usage guide for that particular visit, and will not be used again. URL is the abbreviation of Uniform Resource Locator, the global address of documents and other recourses on the World Wide Web.

We might use IP addresses to examine trends, manage the site, follow user's activities, and gather data for aggregate use. An IP address is a 32-binary digit number that identifies each customer's information. Those addresses are not linked to individual's information.

Data Safety

Vipex Consolidators uses firewalls to store your data in a private and safe environment. We are committed to make any changes and take all appropriate measures in order not to allow your personal information to be viewed by any third party other than those which we have engaged by Vipex Consolidators. The appointed third parties are not allowed to use customer's information except for the purpose of giving the service requested. We will only disclose your data to other third parties if required to do so for legal or regulatory purposes. Third parties, such as Affiliate companies, may serve content and advertisements, collect information directly from visitors, and place or recognize cookies on visitors' browsers.

Announcement of changes

During the course of doing business in the year, we will change our privacy policy. We will publish these changes on our site and will not send out notices to our customers notifying them of any change. It is the customers' responsibility to check our site on a regular basis to keep informed of any change.
